Good results for X-Press crews in the Boston Marathon this year.

Congratulations to XP2 who beat their own novice record, setting a time of 4h01 - they're determined to come back next year to try and take 15 minutes off that!

The combined X-Press/Cantabs quad finished in 3h54, winning the S4 category. For them though, this was just a warm up for the Tour du Lac on Saturday. More details of this craziness here

See the little camera on the stern of the quad? Well here's the video of the race!
